The Honorable Society of King's Inns

.....
THIS SPLENDID SETTING FOR SPECIAL OCCASIONS FOR MORE THEN TWO CENTURIES AWAITS YOUR EVENT.
.....

Welcome to The Honorable Society of King's Inns, The Venue. Founded in 1541 under a charter from Henry VIII, King's Inns is Ireland's oldest legal institution and oldest School of Law. Many distinguished legal and political figures over the past centuries have been members of the Society and benefited from our legal education.

Designed by James Gandon and located on Dublin's Constitution Hill, King's Inns is a key example of Ireland's Georgian architectural heritage. King's Inns is also one of Ireland's most interesting social venues, built on a tradition of collegiality and fine dining. Our Dining Hall, completed in 1806, provides a magnificent setting for any occasion. It has been the setting for some very special celebrations over the years' for both private and corporate use.

Events include; conferences, business meetings, award ceremonies, product launches & exhibitions, concerts & musical recitals, corporate gatherings, weddings & civil ceremonies, family celebrations, location shoots, cinema & television productions. The Inns has over 200 years of experience in hosting and welcoming guests.

MARRIAGE & CIVIL PARTNERSHIP CEREMONIES

Marriage & Civil Partnership Ceremonies can be solemnised by the Registrar, in the Lower Lecture Room, which has been approved by the Civil Registration Service. It's important to note that this service can only be availed of where the couple concerned makes direct application to the Registrar at civilregistrationservice.ie. Approval is granted for each individual ceremony only. Couples must liaise directly with the Registrar's Office about the availability of a Registrar at the earliest possible date.

It is now possible to have a marriage ceremony solemnised elsewhere in our building by an Independent Registrar who is on the Registrar of Solemnisers, and details of that registration may be obtained from the Registrar of Civil Marriage. You can book an appointment with the Registrar online at civilregistrationservice.ie.
